

Reducing the burden of Campylobacter infection in the UK – the local authority contribution.

7th July 2005, National Motorcycle Museum, Birmingham

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 9:30 – 10:45 | Registration - Tea/coffee Reception |
| 10:45 – 10:50 | Chair's opening remarks
Dr Judith Hilton, Food Standards Agency |
| | Session I: Reducing Campylobacter in poultry |
| 10:50 – 11:20 | FSA's Campylobacter reduction target
To be confirmed |
| 11:20 – 11:45 | Overview of industry's actions to reduce Campylobacter
To be confirmed |
| | Session II: Poultry Surveillance studies |
| 11:45 – 12:10 | CLASSP- progress update
Mr Richard Elson, Health Protection Agency |
| 12:10 – 12:30 | Questions & Answers |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | Lunch |
| 13:30 – 13:55 | Survey of Salmonella and Campylobacter contamination in raw chickens on retail sale in Wales and NI
Dr Richard Meldrum, National Public Health Wales |
| 13:55 – 14:20 | Link to human infection-typing of chicken isolates
Dr Robert Owen, Health Protection Agency |
| 14:20 – 14:40 | What does participation really involve and what are its benefits?
To be confirmed |
| 14:40 – 14:50 | Questions & Answers |
| 14:50 – 15:30 | Open Forum |
| 15:30 | Close and Coffee |