

Privacy notice for the Regulating Our Future Newsletter

Information on the Regulating Our Future Newsletter privacy policy, why we require data, what we do with the data and your rights.

The Food Standards Agency will be what is known as the 'Controller' of the personal data provided to us.

Why we need it

We need to collect this information for the purpose of sending notifications by email to subscribers of the Regulating Our Future Newsletter.

You have consented to provide this information to us. You can unsubscribe from the newsletter at any time.

By signing up you also consent to receiving other information and alert updates from the us in relation to the Regulating Our Future programme.

These may include updates on:

- information relating to topic
- general website / service updates
- our user surveys

How and where we store your data and who we may share it with

For more information, please see the How and where we store your data and who we may share it with section in our Personal Information Charter.

We will retain personal information until you unsubscribe from this service or the contact details you have provided are no longer valid.

International transfers

For more information on international transfers, please see the International transfers section in our Personal Information Charter.

EU citizens

For more information on EU Citizens Privacy Notice, please see the EU citizens section in our Personal Information Charter.

Your rights

For more information on your rights, please see the Your rights section in our Personal Information Charter.

Contact us

If you have any queries concerning this Privacy Notice, your personal information or any questions on our use of the information, please email our Data Protection Officer in the FSA, who is the Information Management and Security Team Leader using the address below.