4. Matters of interest to WFAC pertaining to FSA in Wales

4.1 Royal Welsh Show 2022?– Over the 4-day event, staff and WFAC members engaged with around 750 people. It is worth noting that the first two days of the Royal Welsh were amongst the hottest ever recorded in the UK, with temperatures on the showground in Llanellwedd reaching 38 degrees. This undoubtedly affected visitor numbers, particularly as the Monday is traditionally one of the show’s busiest days. There is certainly value in having a presence through the stand at these events, and also as an opportunity to engage with a range of stakeholders. The FSA Chair and I attended meetings with Hybu Cig Cymru, NFU Cymru, Food Innovation Wales centres and a variety of Welsh food producers to hear more about their work. The FSA Chair reported that it was a great way to meet key stakeholders and maintain working relationships, which are vital for working together in future.

4.2 National Eisteddfod 2022?– Over the 8-day event in Tregaron staff and WFAC members welcomed over 2100 visitors to the stand, with many taking home a souvenir FSA tea towel to remind consumers of the 4C’s. Highlights included Dr Ruth Hussey, Deputy Chair of the FSA’s Board being admitted to the Gorsedd of the Bards for her contributions to public health in Wales.

4.3 Attending Wales Service for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth – On Friday 16 September, I attended on behalf of the FSA, the service of prayer and remembrance for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II at Llandaff Cathedral, in the presence of His Majesty King Charles III and the Queen Consort. I was immensely proud that the FSA was invited to this occasion of national remembrance: not only so that we could be a part of it, but also because it shows that we are seen to be an integral part of the broader public sector in Wales.

4.4 Directorate change – In response to the greater responsibilities we have inherited since leaving the EU, FSA wide Directorate changes are being implemented as we evolve and respond to this change. Wales, along with Northern Ireland (NI), will move to the UK and International Affairs (IUK) directorate on 1 December 2022 so that the FSA’s devolution policy work is sited in the same directorate as the Wales and NI offices. As such, this will be Julie Pierce’s last WFAC meeting as the Director for Wales.

4.5 Precision breeding – We are continuing to engage with Welsh Government officials as the Precision Breeding Bill moves through UK Parliament with a workshop between officials planned. Consumer research is now in phase two with qualitative workshops underway, findings are planned to be reported by the end of the year.

4.6 Retained EU Law (REUL) Bill – The FSA is responsible for 113 pieces on food safety in England and Wales, plus 39 additional pieces in Wales where we have wider responsibilities. The Bill is an opportunity for us to look at the legislation that we work with and identify areas where we can simplify or amend it. This will help us deliver in line with our guiding principles, such as being risk based and proportionate. Throughout this, we will not compromise food safety or standards. We will also continue to emphasise the value of regulation to support business, to support trade, to encourage innovation, investment and growth. The current timeframe presented by the Government is stretching and the FSA Board is concerned about the scale of the work needed. We are working closely with each government so that people and businesses can be sure that UK food continues to be amongst the safest and highest quality food in the world.

5. Consultations

5.1 Live Consultations:
