

The proposed approach to amendments to Welsh domestic legislation for food and feed safety and hygiene, food compositional standards, labelling

Status: Closed

Date launched: 7 January 2019

Closing date: 4 February 2019

About this consultation

This consultation will be of most interest to:

- enforcement authorities
- manufacturers
- wholesalers
- retailers of food products
- other stakeholders with an interest in food and feed law

Subject of the consultation

This consultation concerns proposed technical amendments to domestic legislation applying in Wales on food and feed hygiene and safety, and food compositional standards and labelling to ensure that this legislation can continue to operate after the UK has left the EU.

Purpose of the consultation

To provide stakeholders with the opportunity to comment on our proposals to make technical fixes to the relevant domestic legislation, and on our options for the more substantive corrections that may be required in relation to food compositional standards and labelling.

Consultation pack

Wales

PDF

View Domestic legislation in Wales consultation as PDF\(Open in a new window\) (799.53 KB)

Views and comments

Responses to this consultation should be sent to:

Kerys James-Palmer
Food Standards Agency
11th Floor Southgate House
Wood Street
Cardiff
Email: food.policy.wales@food.gov.uk

Publication of response summary

Within three months of a consultation ending we aim to publish a summary of responses received and provide a link to it from this page.

You can find information on how we handle data provided in response to consultations in our Consultations privacy notice.

Further information

This consultation has been prepared in accordance with HM Government Consultation Principles. If an Impact Assessment has been produced, this is included in the consultation documents. If no Impact Assessment has been provided, the reason will be given in the consultation document.