

Updated: The Village Bakery Markethill recalls various own-branded bakery products because of incorrect allergen labelling

The Village Bakery Markethill is extending its recall of numerous bakery products because they contain further undeclared or incorrectly labelled allergens and further affected products. This means the products are a possible health risk for anyone with an allergy to soya, mustard, sesame or celery or an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents, wheat (gluten), oats (gluten) or barley (gluten). Please see attached customer notice PDF for the allergens in each affected product.

Risk statement

Allergen(s): Soya, mustard, sesame, celery, milk or milk constituents, wheat (gluten), oats (gluten) or barley (gluten).

These products may contain soya, mustard, sesame, celery, milk or milk constituents, wheat (gluten), oats (gluten) or barley (gluten) making them a possible health risk for anyone with an allergy to soya, mustard, sesame or celery or an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents, wheat (gluten), oats (gluten) or barley (gluten).

Please see attached customer notice PDF for the allergens in each affected product.

Action taken by the company

The Village Bakery Markethill is recalling the above products from customers and has been advised to contact the relevant allergy support organisations, which will tell their members about the recall. The company has also issued a point-of-sale notice to its customers. These notices explain to customers why the products are being recalled and tell them what to do if they have bought the products.

Our advice to consumers

If you have bought any of the above products and have an allergy to soya, mustard, sesame or celery or an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents, wheat (gluten), oats (gluten) or barley (gluten) do not eat them. Instead return them to the store from where they were bought for a full refund.

Please see attached customer notice PDF for the allergens in each affected product.

About allergy alerts

Sometimes there will be a problem with a food product that means it should not be sold. Then it might be 'withdrawn' (taken off the shelves) or 'recalled' (when customers are asked to return the product). Sometimes foods have to be withdrawn or recalled if there is a risk to consumers because the allergy labelling is missing or incorrect or if there is any other food allergy risk. When there is a food allergy risk, the FSA will issue an Allergy Alert.
