

Updated: Thomas Tucker recalls several Popcorn products because they may contain undeclared milk

Thomas Tucker Ltd is recalling several brands and flavours of popcorn because they may contain milk which is not mentioned on the label. This means the products are a possible health risk for anyone with an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents.

Please use the information below as the most recent, replacing earlier versions of this recall.

Risk statement

Allergen(s): Milk

These products may contain milk making them a possible health risk for anyone with an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents.

Action taken by the company

Thomas Tucker Ltd is recalling the above products from customers and has contacted the relevant allergy support organisations, which will tell their members about the recall. The company has provided point-of-sale customer notices to all retailers and outlets where the affected products may have been purchased. These notices explain to customers why the products are being recalled and tell them what to do if they have bought the products.

Our advice to consumers

If you have bought the above products and have an allergy or intolerance to milk or milk constituents, do not eat it. Instead return it to the store from where it was bought for a full refund.

About allergy alerts

Sometimes there will be a problem with a food product that means it should not be sold. Then it might be 'withdrawn' (taken off the shelves) or 'recalled' (when customers are asked to return the product). Sometimes foods have to be withdrawn or recalled if there is a risk to consumers because the allergy labelling is missing or incorrect or if there is any other food allergy risk. When there is a food allergy risk, the FSA will issue an Allergy Alert.
