

Routine notification of EU legislative change: Directive (EU) 2015/254 (repealing Council Directive 93/5/EEC) on scientific examination of questions relating to food

Status: Closed

More about this notification

The European Parliament by means of the Directive 2015/254 of 11 February 2015 repealed the Council Directive 93/5/EEC on assistance to the Commission and cooperation by the member states in the scientific examination of questions relating to food.

The aim of Council Directive 93/5/EEC was to ensure the smooth running of the Scientific Committee for Food by promoting the scientific support from the member states and by organising the cooperation with the relevant national bodies on scientific issues regarding the safety of foodstuffs.

However, the scientific tasks assigned to the Scientific Committee on Food were taken over by the Scientific Committee and Panels of the European Food Safety Authority (EFSA), following Regulation No 178/2002 of the European Parliament.

Contact

If you have any questions or comments on this notification, please email helpline@food.gov.uk

Publication of response summary

Within three months of a consultation ending we aim to publish a summary of responses received and provide a link to it from this page.

You can find information on how we handle data provided in response to consultations in our Consultations privacy notice.

Further information

This consultation has been prepared in accordance with HM Government Consultation Principles. If an Impact Assessment has been produced, this is included in the consultation documents. If no Impact Assessment has been provided, the reason will be given in the consultation document.