{2. LOGOS: Ipsos and Food Standards Agency, Food Standards Scotland}

Food and You 2 Survey {display in centre of page in bold as a heading}

The aim of the survey is to help the {IF England, Wales and Northern Ireland: Food Standards Agency (FSA)} {IF Scotland: Food Standards Agency (FSA) and Food Standards Scotland (FSS)} understand people's attitudes and behaviour relating to food, including eating out, cooking and preparing food in the home, trust in the food system and concerns about food. The findings will be used to inform policy decision-making and communication campaigns by identifying areas where action or further research is required.

You can complete this survey on a desktop, laptop, tablet or smartphone. If at any point you wish to stop the survey and start again later, you will be able to do this. To stop the survey, simply close your internet browser. When you wish to resume, you can log back in with the same password and pick up where you left off. FHIS stands for the Food Hygiene Information Scheme, which is run in Scotland and provides the results of food hygiene inspections.

There are three certificates - 'Pass' which means the business meets the legal requirement for food hygiene, 'Improvement Required' where businesses did not meet the legal requirements and need to make improvements, and 'Awaiting Inspection'. For businesses awarded a 'pass' certificate, a pass sticker is also available for display.
